

USE OF AN EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

In the event that, upon examination, this application is found to be substantially allowable except for relatively minor errors involving grammar, spelling or sentence structure and including issues involving customary or usual patent office practice, the Examiner is ENCOURAGED to utilize an Examiner's Amendment. This use of an Examiner's Amendment is believed to be of a mutual benefit to the Applicant and the Patent Office in expediting practice of the examination process.

5